Work Experience

Sanderford & Carroll, P.C.

Senior Associate Attorney (January 2017 – Present)

Sheehy Lovelace & Mayfield, P.C.

Shareholder (1998 – 2016)

1978 to February 1996: Prior to law school, Mr. Burton was employed in the commercial banking industry in the Rio Grande Valley. During his banking career he worked in commercial and real estate lending, including managing the real estate lending divisions of two banks. He has extensive experience managing problem credits and “loan workouts.”

The experience gained while working in the banking industry has had a significant impact on Mr. Burton’s legal career. He understands the importance of incorporating “business judgment” into the resolution of legal disputes. The combination of the experiences gained as a banker and attorney have allowed Mr. Burton to be an effective advocate for his clients and a successful mediator of commercial disputes.
